

PSYCHOLOGY

(for students 10th-12th grade)

Class Description: A general introductory course in psychology including:

- *Brain structure and function
- *Developmental psychology
- *Sensation and perception
- *Sleep and dreaming
- *Language and intelligence
- *Emotions and stress
- *Personality
- *Psychological disorders and therapies
(and more!)

Cost: $40/month

Homework: 3-4 hours/week. Mostly reading/studying the chapter material with some small assignments throughout the year, most requiring internet access.

Supplies: 3-ring folder with paper and pen/pencil for note-taking/assignments

Required textbook: PSYCHOLOGY 9th Edition 2010 (hard copy)
by David G. Myers (copies available at Amazon and Half.com)

Instructor: Sheila Ives, holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, currently provides Christian counseling at two locations in the metro.

For more information: inhisfreedom@gmail.com