avacunningham15@gmail.com

Tuition: $50 per student, per month

Grades: All ages

Course description:

This class is recommended for homeschoolers who want to have fun and get moving. Students will spend each month focusing on a different sport, as well as honing coordination skills and building strength. The course instructor will instill discipline in the body and mind, as well as help build confidence in each student as they learn to excel at each sport they learn.

Requirements: Must consult instructor for sign-up eligibility.

Instructor Information:

Ava Cunningham was a competitive gymnast for 10 years, a competitive dancer for 3 years, cheerleader for 2 years, and practiced judo for 1 year. She was homeschooled by her parents from 3rd grade to graduation, and has graduated from OCCC with an associate in the arts. Coaching is her passion, and she loves passing down the love for athletics and drive to achieve to her students.
