

Cultural Geography

Teacher: Melody Warren
melody@rmmmdse.com

This class is full of hands-on learning experiences. Studying the continents one at a time, we will learn the following about each of them: geography, culture, history, religion, important people, and current events. In lieu of a textbook, students will use the internet to find answers to the questions in their workbooks, "Around the World in 180 Days". Students will also complete map work for each continent. Seterra.com will be used to study the countries' locations. Quizzes will be completed on Seterra.com in a game format. There will be one project each semester. Class time will be used for review of the previous week's work, new information, hands-on activities, discussions, and group work. I can't wait to explore the world with your student!
